

Recreation Facility Master Operator Certificate

What Is The Recreation Facility Master Operator Certificate (RFMOC)?

The Recreation Facility Master Operator Certificate (RFMOC) is an educational program for employees working in a recreational setting to further their education, skills and to obtain practical experience in the recreational field.

Facility operators and professionals may apply to the Alberta Association of Recreation Facility Personnel (AARFP) office for certification. A fee of $50.00 + GST will be charged to each applicant to cover administration expenses.

Benefits of RFMOC:

- Facility operators and professionals can enhance their skills and knowledge.
- Assists with professional development plans for staff.
- Establishes an educational standard in which recreation facility employers use as a basis for hiring.
